I UNDERSTAND that the school TAFE sponsor is responsible for the conduct, grooming and behavior of each TAFE member attending; that each TAFE member and sponsor will be required to live in dormitory housing and take part in Summer Workshop activities; that no student or sponsor will leave the workshop area except in case of emergency and with permission of the Director. The parents or guardian of each student attending hereby grants the sponsor or other TAFE person in charge permission to obtain medical help if needed and releases the school, TAFE organization and its personnel from liability for any occurrence in relation to said workshop. All participants agree to stay through the entire workshop program.

The TAFE Dress Code for summer workshops is as follows: The person shall be clean and neatly groomed, and such grooming cannot be construed as exhibitionism. In general, student leaders should be very aware of the impact of personal appearance, and their grooming should be above average. This is not to say that the workshop will be a formal affair. Appropriate dress for the general sessions and meetings would be no less than casual jeans, culottes, skirts, sport shirts, pants/slacks, and walking length shorts (longer than a person's fingertips with their arms and fingers fully extended). Not to be worn are halters, crop-tops, see-through fabrics, short-shorts, athletic shorts or any other clothing that allows unnecessary exposure, and tee-shirts with inappropriate emblems or slogans.

EACH ADULT SUPERVISING a group of students at TAFE Summer Workshop will be expected to participate in several aspects of the workshop. Adult responsibilities will include, but are not limited to, evening room check, attendance at general sessions and other duties as requested.
