

COMPETITIVE EVENTS

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

ALTERNATES:
Can I substitute a competitor?	Events with only one competitor cannot be substituted. Events with more than one competitor can be substituted as long as at least one of the competitors was in the original group. A substitute must complete the appropriate " Alternate Competitor Form ".
If two students competed in an event at Region and only one competed in that event at State, can the original two compete at Nationals?	No, only the number of students who competed at State will be allowed to advance to Nationals.
What if I qualify for the next level of competitions and I am unable to attend.	Out of courtesy to other TAFE members, contact the State office immediately.
If I am competing in three events, can I be an alternate for another event?	No.
COMPETITION MATERIALS:
What do I do with my displays, portfolio, or children's book once I have finished my competition?	Competitors keep their own items after the judging of their event. Do not leave them with judges, facilitators, volunteers, etc. You are responsible for safeguarding your own project items.
What do I do if the judge asks to keep my book, portfolio or display?	Leave it and ask the judge when you should return to pick it up. Then, return and pick it up at the time given to you by the judge. If there is no one in the room when you return, go to the competitive events headquarters room to see if it was turned in there. All items must be picked up by the end of competition day or they will be discarded.
Can I completely change my project between Region and State or between State and Nationals?	No! You can only improve upon your original project.
DRESS CODE:
Can competitors wear costumes?	Only five events allow competitors to dress in character costumes and then only if the costumes were used during the original project or presentation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Children's Literature Pre-K and Children's Literature K-3 competitors can dress in character costumes relevant to the book.</li><li>• Bulletin Board contestants can dress in character costumes relevant to the bulletin board.</li><li>• Project Visualize contestants may choose to dress in costumes worn during their project.
