When you reflect upon every teacher you've had in school so far, you'll probably notice they use one thing in common: Bulletin boards. This handy display method is popular with teachers because it can be harnessed to make lessons more engaging, highlight classroom rules and reminders, or even share an occasional inspirational quote. In this contest, participants must prepare an interactive display board and an oral presentation introducing the display and summarizing how it could be used in a classroom setting to teach a lesson.

There are two types of boards for submission. Contestants will be grouped by type of board for scoring purposes.
